Case - 001

Roblox Username: PinksIko

Discord Username: Cell#0002

Crimes: Distributing Child Pornography (Loli Hentai), Blackmailing

Current status: Blacklisted

Position prior to blacklist?: In-game Senior Moderator, Server

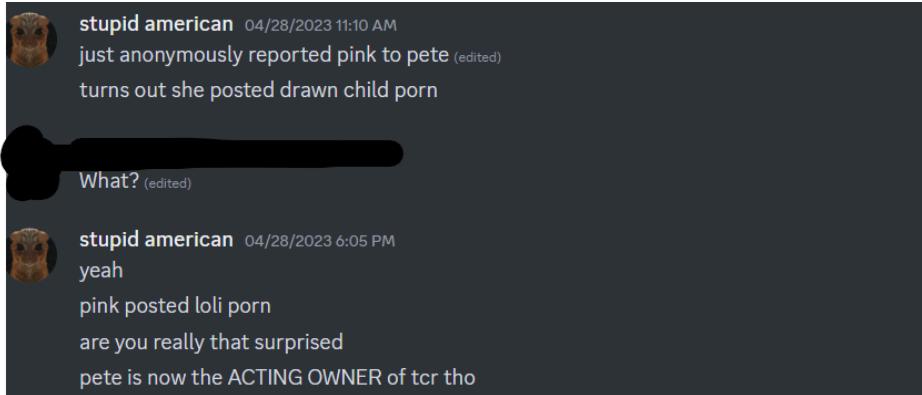

Moderator

General Description:

Pink was a notable member in the TCR that made a claim to fame early on in the community by being extremely active and befriending notable individuals. Despite being wrapped up in a few conflicts, she ultimately had a positive reputation in the community.

This would all change when the true extent of her degeneracy became apparent

On 4/28 we were disclosed this message by catboytrolling#3065
(simply Cat going forward)

After Cat was admin abused on TCR: Quebec (then named The City Roleplay), he then took the accusations to making it public in the general channel, which set off a drama.

Main incident documented here.

PINK INCIDENT-INT

While Zen/Dex took no part in this drama, there are recurring themes that would repeat themselves in dramas relating to pedophilia.

These being:

Hostility between the community and developers
Pedophiles not being punished, members forced to outcry
Immaturity of developers.

Members and developers downplaying the severity of actions such as pedophilia.

Currently Pink has resigned from TCR and has accepted the ban. She did attempt to come back through a poll, however this poll failed. She does seem remorseful of what she did. She does still keep up with TCR affairs. She does not seem to be close with Zen/Dex anymore

However, not even just an hour after this incident, it led into another incident, which is Case - 002.

Bettering Yesterday

Case - 002

Roblox Username: ClanClasher79

Discord Username: Neptune#5880

Crimes: Attempting to Solicit nude images (nudes) from a minor (16) three times despite claiming to be an adult (19)

Current status: Blacklisted

Position prior to blacklist?: In-game Senior Moderator, Operative in the former Tactical Response and Riot Control (TRRC for short).

General Description:

Neptune was a general member of the community known for their beliefs regarding formality of any kind being a detriment on the community as a whole, and managed to befriend Zen/Dex.

On 4/29 the same day of the drama concerning Pink, Neptune came to her aid after she was banned, it was also in this same drama where his pedophilia was made public.

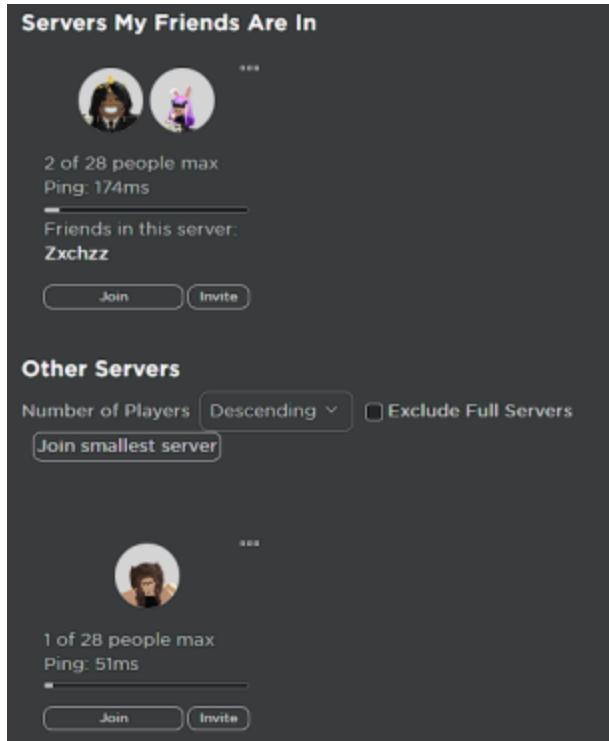

Main incident documented here.

≡ NEPTUNE INCIDENT-INT

Zen/Dex took no part in this drama, but it did seem to change his demeanour with the community.

Neptune did not have their game access revoked instantly upon being banned from the server. It took three days for that to happen.

Curiously, this image was discovered.

(Image was dated 5/02)

While Zen/Dex did NOT have anything to do with the drama, there is a notion that he does want to bring Neptune back into the community, despite the obvious pedophilia.

There is also the recurring phenomenon of server moderation muting/punishing people for talking about it. This recurring phenomenon, as of 6/14/23, has been dropped.

Believe it or not Neptune asked Anco for nudes quite a while back, Anco did not want to do him any harm to Neptune, so Cat let it slide. However, after he defended loli hentai, Cat made it public, ultimately leading to his blacklist on the server that day, and blacklist from the game three days later.

Neptune is still confirmed to be on Discord
Neptune has retired his main account on Roblox.

Neptune is remorseless over his actions
Neptune does want to return to TCR
He is still close with Dex/Zen

There was a delay in the next major incident concerning pedophilia, that being Case-003A

Bettering Yesterday
WITH REGARDS.

Anyways let me cut the bullshit out for now.
Poopgamer has managed to prove his innocence
and there was a MASSIVE misunderstanding.
Turns out he isn't ro-epstein, just a 15 year old with a ro-power rush.

As such, this section will be kept for archival purposes, and used for explaining
The pedophilia claim for poopgamer was based on an overzealous approach to an issue that spurred out of a dubious stream of events

Case - 003A

Roblox Username: Poopgamer36522

Discord Username: Poopgamer#0001

Crimes: Nepotism, Pedophilia, admin abuse, and stealing property

Current status: Blacklisted?

Position prior to blacklist?: Developer, Server Moderator, TRRC
Assistant Director.

General Description:

Poopgamer was a former Developer (Dev) who made it big by helping another former Dev with technical issues. He became notorious for his abuse of admin permissions and controversies mostly concerning TRRC.

A private conference was held between NekoMilitant, Catboytrolling, ShiveraTear, and PeteLeCloque to handle the controversies.

Main transcript here.

POOPGAMER TRANSCRIPT-INT

Zen/Dex gave the approval for the removal of Poopgamer, however, there was no yes or no, making it very unclear if he was even aware of the whole incident.

There was a delay of 17 days before Zen brought back Poopgamer under an alternate account named CarbonOwl.

Case - 003B

Roblox Username: CarbonOw

Discord Username: CarbonOwl#1806 (deactivated)

Crimes: Obstructing justice, prior convictions.

Current Status: Blacklisted?

Position prior to blacklist?: Junior Developer

General Description:

Poopgamers approved attempt at coming back to the community under a new alias, he was supposed to be a silent worker, but he ended up exposing himself as Poopgamer the day he was added.

An anonymous former higher rank hosted a conference in a group chat.

It also spilled over into General once no action was taken against him.

Transcript and Incident will be documented here

CARBON TRANSCRIPT AND INCIDENT-INT

Zen was aware of what Poopgamer did and failed to care. He brought him back anyway, regardless of whether anybody wanted him or not.

A tragic theme that will be carried on with the next case.

Yes, you could've been muted for talking about the incident. This was never enforced.

Once again, kept for archival purposes, Poopgamer has cleared his name. Do not bother or consider him a pedophile, let him be.

There were a total of eight days before the next incident.
Before the rise and fall of FerrusVilkas.

Case - 004

Roblox Username: FerrusVilkas

Discord Username: FlyingWhale#3390

Crimes: Personally excusing necrophilia, perversion (Sending pornography containing Knifeplay as a random response), conspiracy to commit nepotism, unlawful deletion of polls, unlawful removal of Moderation Staff, unlawfully withholding information, slander and libel, conspiracy to commit organised stalking, and attempting to seize personal information, necrophilia, potential pedophilia

Current Status: Fired

Position prior to firing: Second Community Manager, Head of Moderation Staff, Head Administrator

General Description:

FerrusVilkas has no clear description from before he ended up in the spotlight due to the fact he had a grand total of zero messages in the Discord and had zero reported sightings on TCRs itself.

However, this would all change starting in January 2023

✉️ FERRUS TRANSCRIPT AND INCIDENT - INT

Zen completely ignored the community feedback on him being in a role of such power and became angry when his community naturally turned on him

Unlike this time where you could be muted for talking about the incident, people joked about it and used it as a basis for rebellion.

He has not spoken a word publicly since.

There was a public peace until the end of TCR on 6/20/23
But behind wretched closed doors there was still an unstable issue to handle.

Discord Username: much#0537

Crimes: Incest, pedophilia, necrophilia, gore, generating child pornography with an AI, randomly sending impaling pornography, randomly sending gore, vore, encouraging minors to engage in ERP, openly sending inflation pornography, presumably sending pornography to minors, forcing others to ERP, admin abuse

Current Status: Blacklisted

Position prior to blacklist?: Fired moderator

General Description

Yush and Sun are the co-owners of Letrux/Ostreham Productions, a game separate from TCR, but very similar.

We had no clue on the full extent of their degeneracy until they both arrived at TCR.

 LETRUX TRANSCRIPT - INT

Zen utterly ignored all of the evidence against Letrux and was angry over the fact he had to remove his “friends” from his group. The start of the grim reality.

There was a bitter silence in TCRs history seeing as the community was slowing down, but that did not stop Sun from trying to get back into a community

 MISS TRANSCRIPT - INT

Zen completely acted like he knew nothing about Sun coming back despite intending to have them both return one way or another.

This marked the end of any major incident before TCRs end of operation.

But that doesn't mean we can't forget
